

COLD WAR CITIES STUDY DAY
Centre for the Study of Cultural Memory (IGRS)
25 SEPTEMBER 2010

9.30. Registration and coffee (Grand Lobby, Senate House)

Panel 1 (room ST274/5, Stewart House)

10.00-10.20. Maria Prieto (Navarra): 'Europe between millennia: urban imaginaries from the Cold War to the year 2000'

10.20-10.40. Vladimir Dobrenko (Konstanz): 'Divided Europe in early Soviet Cold War film: the mirror and the screen'

10.40-11.00. Paul Dobraszczyk (Reading): 'Petrified modernism: Chernobyl, Pripjat and the death of the city'

11.00-11.20. Discussion

11.20-11.45. Coffee break (Grand Lobby)

Panel 2 (room ST274/5, Stewart House)

11.45-12.20. Martha Langford (Concordia) and John Langford (Victoria): 'Re-aligning the view: Cold War Cairo'

12.20-12.40. Jill Bugajski (Northwestern-Art Institute Chicago): 'Happenings in crisis: monumental performance and urban iconoclasm in the 1960s'

12.40-13.00. Discussion

13.00-14.30. Lunch break (own arrangements)

Panel 3 (room ST274/5, Stewart House)

14.30-14.50. Sabine Rutar (Südost-Institut): 'Violence in Cold War cities: riots, strikes and protests in dockyard workers' milieus on both sides of the Italian-Yugoslavian border'

14.50-15.25. Matteo Colombi (GWZO-Leipzig) and Katia Pizzi (IGRS): 'Cold War's inconsistencies: Trieste in Slovene and Italian films'

15.25-15.45. Discussion

15.45-16.00. Coffee break (Grand Lobby)

Panel 4 (room ST274/5, Stewart House)

16.00-16.20. Deborah Jaffé (V&A Museum of Childhood): 'The Bauhaus, Dessau, 1979'

16.20-16.40. Simon Bacon (London Consortium): 'Mourning and melancholia in Cold War Berlin: how Wings of Desire by Wenders and Blade by Norrington embody two faces of a divided city'

16.40-17.00. Ricarda Vidal (IGRS): 'Cold War Street Scenes: Bruno Kleberg and Walter Marten's Geschichte einer Straße (1954) and Charles and Ray Eames's Glimpses of the USA (1959)'

17.00-17.20. Discussion

17.20-17.45. Round table discussion

17.45/18.00. Guided tour of Senate House (leader: Peter Fewkes)

19.30. Conference dinner